Dear Villagers and Friends,

It is with the greatest pleasure we welcome you to Kirkby Fleetham & District Floral and Horticultural Society Annual Show or 'The Feast' as we call it. Last year we were able to get the show back on the road and provide a full programme of events once again for our wonderful community. Every year comes with its challenges and last year it was the weather, it was perfect in some ways however those soaring temperatures meant that adaptations had to be made. As usual the committee rose to those challenges and resolutely overcame them.

Things change and move with the times as people come and go, have busy lives and careers and this year again has been no exception. There have been new ideas, innovations and new ways of working together and as a result we invite you to the 121st Feast.

We feel privileged to live in such a beautiful area and our ultimate aim is to maintain an event with a focus on community, tradition and heritage. We very much hope you will support, take part and more than anything enjoy our events leading up to 'show day' such as Quoits and the Fun Run. There will be all the usual favourites including the ever popular Dog Show, Quiz Night, Displays, Show Tent, Music and Dancing.

The Feast events, fundraisers and community initiatives could not be realised without the commitment, dedication and support of the Committee, Patrons, Sponsors, Supporters and Members of the Community. A special mention must be made to Tarmac for their sponsorship over the years and this year is no exception.

Our gratitude is also extended to you all for your invaluable support and assistance in 'keeping rural traditions alive' and we look forward to seeing you at one or more of the events.

Visit: our Facebook page or kirkbyfleethamfeast.org for details of all our events.

Class 113 Handwriting: If I were the King by A.A. Milne

I often wish I were a King,
And then I could do anything.

If I were King of Norrway,
I'd ask an elephant to stay.

If only I were King of Spain,
I'd take my hat off in the rain.

If I were King of Babylon,
I'd leave my button gloves undone.

If only I were King of France,
I wouldn't brush my hair for aunts.

If I were King of Timbuctoo,
I'd think of lovely things to do.

I think, if I were King of Greece,
I'd push things off the mantelpiece.

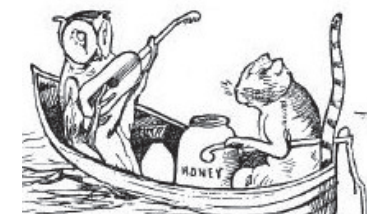

If I were King of anything,
I'd tell the soldiers, "I'm the King!"

Class 121 Handwriting: The Owl and the Pussy Cat by Edward Lear

The Owl and the Pussy-cat went to sea
In a beautiful pea-green boat,
They took some honey, and plenty of money,
Wrapped up in a five-pound note.
The Owl looked up to the stars above,
And sang to a small guitar,
"O lovely Pussy! O Pussy, my love,
What a beautiful Pussy you are,
You are, you are!
What a beautiful Pussy you are!"

"Dear Pig, are you willing to sell for one shilling
Your ring?" Said the Piggy, "I will."
So they took it away, and were married next day
By the Turkey who lives on the hill.
They dined on mince, and slices of quince,
Which they ate with a runcible spoon;
And hand in hand, on the edge of the sand,
They danced by the light of the moon,
The moon, the moon,
They danced by the light of the moon.

Pussy said to the Owl, "You elegant fowl!
How charmingly sweet you sing!
O let us be married! too long we have tarried:
But what shall we do for a ring?"
They sailed away, for a year and a day,
To the land where the Bong-Tree grows
And there in a wood a Piggy-wig stood
With a ring at the end of his nose,
His nose, his nose,
With a ring at the end of his nose.
